

You take online privacy seriously and so does MSC. It's our way of sustaining your trust in our company, our products and our services. Our privacy policy describes the information we collect from and about you during your visit to this website. Our privacy policy also describes how we use information about you, whom we share it with and how we protect it. This privacy policy applies only to the MSC website.

This site may contain links to third party sites not controlled by MSC or covered by this privacy statement. We recommend that you check the privacy statement of other sites you visit before providing any personal information.

What personal information does MSC collect online?

We collect personal information about you from the information you provide us during your visit to this Web site. If you request a quote, we may collect your email address as well as certain anonymous information, such as your vehicle information and the area in which you live. We may also collect the following information from your completed Vehicle Service Plan online purchase form:

address

vehicle identification number (VIN)

one of the following:

- credit card information
- debit card information
- account number at a bank or other financial institution, type of bank account, and the name of the bank or other financial institution

Does MSC use cookies or other online technologies to collect information about me?

When you view one of our Web sites, we may store certain information on your computer. This information may be in the form of a small text file called a "cookie."

We may use cookie technology to gather anonymous, aggregate information about your visit to our Web site. This information allows us to measure site activity and to create ideas for improving our sites and evaluate the effectiveness of our advertising. The information may include the time and length of your visit.

Do you share personal information about me?

We do not sell information about you to anyone, ever. However, we may share information about you with AAA New York and Interstate National Dealer Services, Inc., to provide you with the services you are requesting. For example, we may share information about you with your credit card or debit card provider or with your bank to complete your online request to purchase an extended warranty plan. We may also share information about you with our bank and service providers for the purpose of completing your request.

Any company with which we share information about you for the above purposes is contractually required to comply with confidentiality standards.

We do NOT provide information about you to any unaffiliated third party for their independent use without your permission. However, we may disclose your personal information, as required by law, in conjunction with a governmental inquiry or in litigation or dispute resolution.

Can I change or update my personal information collected by MSC?

Information you provide online may be changed or updated by contacting MSC Member Service at (800) 724-4440. Please contact us so that we may assist you.

What steps do you take to protect my personal information?

Employees, agents, and contractors are restricted from accessing information obtained from our Web sites. We maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards designed to protect your personal information.
